5. Transport for Wales

To consider a report from TfW and to consider the topics covered at the last meeting as follows:

- i) Apparently the new trains will have better toilet facilities – however there is still only one toilet per 2 car unit. Alex is to take back the dissatisfaction that this is the case. Any further news?

NORTH & MID WALES ASSOCIATION OF LOCAL COUNCILS

NORTH COAST TRANSPORT LIAISON COMMITTEE

- ii) There is poor audible announcements on most of the trains. This is probably down to training. Alex is to take this back for action. Has any action been taken, no improvement to date.
- iii) Disabled access was raised, this is improving and more is being done. How is disabled access on bus replacement services coped with?
- iv) Llandudno was cited as a Community Hub, however it closes at 3pm at the present time. Alex is to take this away to seek longer opening hours. Any news on any change in times?
- v) The crossing point between Llandudno Junction and Llandudno is still an issue which has not been resolved. Is there any progress on this subject?
- vi) Overcrowding in the summer months is still an issue. Transport for Wales is working on solutions to this. What actions have been taken to solve overcrowding?
- vii) The Station Audit and Dementia is progressing albeit slowly. Any news on progress?

6. Avanti

To receive any news from Avanti Trains.

7. Network Rail
